

Bay sandbeach efforts fading, seek D.C. help

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Dismayed Bay St. Louis city officials saw their proposed sand renourishment project slipping through their fingers this week, as they hurried to plug into the T.L. James Co. dredge.

Although the prospects of the city succeeding narrowed daily, officials were doggedly pursuing avenues to keep the project alive Wednesday.

The James Co. finished its work on the county's beach renourishment program Sunday morning, completing 4.4 miles of a 200-foot-wide strand between Washinton and Dane streets. Another 1.3 miles of renourishment further south was aborted by state and federal officials who wanted to protect sea grass growing along the shore.

Meanwhile, the city set aside $500,000 to pump sand along some 5,000 feet of downtown, and arranged to tag on to the county's contract with the James Co. for the work. The city obtained a permit from the state Bureau of Marine Resources, and was virtually assured of a permit from the regulatory branch of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

But another branch of the Corps tugged at the James Co. to begin work on a dredging project in the Tombigbee River near Iuka, Ms. Company spokesmen said they'd have to pull out their dredge from Bay St. Louis to fulfill a "seasonally dependent contract" with the Corps.

It was not clear to city or county officials why the company had to leave town for that project immediately, since it would have been on the job here for the county a couple of more weeks if the county's project hadn't been shortened.

Public sandbeach set for Jubilee Casino

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Hancock County officials have set aside up to 6,000 cubic yards of sand to help create a public beach at Jubilee Casino -- part of a major project the casino plans at the southern tip of Beach Boulevard.

The action came as the Board of Supervisors tied up loose ends to the beach renourishment program. It was cut some 1.3 miles short by state and federal agencies to protect sea grasses growing along the shore.

The cut -- protested in vain by county officials -- saved some $574,847 in project costs.

Jubilee's reserved sandpile is included in some 10,000 cubic yards of sand that the county stockpiled near the end of the renourishment project, before workers with T.L. James Co. disconnected its dredge from the project Sunday morning.

Plans for the rest of the stockpile include adding sand to the small beach at Buccaneer State Park, and possible expanding the stretch of sand at Clermont Harbor.

Work is underway at Jubilee to relocate Bayou Caddy Fisheries from an area that ultimately will become a Jubilee parking lot. A restaurant is expected to be under construction later this month.

In addition, the casino has applied for permits to construct a new seawall, stretching from its pier to a point approximately at Lakeshore Road.

Jubilee chief operating officer George Baxter told the Board of Supervisors the project will require a total of some 8,000 to 10,000 cubic yards of fill material to be poured between the new and old seawalls. Those figures include the 4,000 to 6,000 cubic yards of sand that will sit atop the fill, creating a new "beach."

The casino's proposed hotel, on the new beachfront, will face the Mississippi Sound, sitting perpendicular to the existing barge-based casino.

Baxter and Jubilee's project engineer William Mitchell said the plans will significantly boost projection of an area of Beach Boulevard that direly needs it.

Baxter said the road currently carries 15 to 20 busloads of casino-goers per day, in addition to a steady stream of

Downtown rest stop plans drafted in Bay

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Plans for a tourist-attracting rest stop downtown have been drafted and given to Bay St. Louis city officials for study.

But city officials are hinting that the project won't be needed if negotiations for other, yet-announced, projects are successful.

The comfort station concept was proposed by council President James Thriffley several weeks ago as a facility that could be built in the parking lot behind the City Hall Annex. The comfort station, accessed via Main Street, would be attractive to tour companies which regularly route their buses to cities with such amenities, Thriffley said.

Tour buses would offload their passengers in downtown Bay St. Louis for a rest, giving local shops a shot at luring in more business, Thriffley said. The plans include an information booth space for RSVP volunteers, and restrooms.

The comfort station also could be used as a bus stop for local residents using the Coast Transit Authority services, city officials say.

After airing the concept of such a station, however, city officials say they've been negotiating for additional parking and other types of property in town. They won't say where the property is, until negotiations are further along, or its relationship with the comfort station.

Thriffley said the subject would be discussed during a Tuesday workshop meeting of City Council.

Waveland votes Civil Service

BY ELLIS CUEVAS
Waveland's Council voted 3-1 to place the city's employees under Civil Service Tuesday, as passed by the Legislature.

The only objection came from Alderman Stan Weidmann, who claimed he had not received a final copy of the plan to review.

Most of Waveland's 140 employees will be covered by the plan which becomes effective in 30 days.

New employees must work one year with the city before

Tour of Homes

The Pass Christian Historical Society's annual Tour of Homes is scheduled for Sunday, May 8 from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Among the five homes open for the tour include, top photo, 613 East Scenic Drive; bottom photo 811 Scenic Drive. Tickets are for a donation of $10 for adults and $8 for children to tour all five homes and enjoying tea. Tickets are available at the Book Boat, Pass Chamber, Beaucoup Books and the day tour beginning at 1 p.m. at the Historical Society Building, 203 East Scenic Drive, or at tour homes. ## Bay hires consultant for highway signals

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Consultants have been hired by Bay St. Louis to design traffic signalization for three intersections on Highway 90, and to launch the downtown depot restoration project.

In action Tuesday, City Council also heard a plea for action dealing with traffic on Felicita Street.

Council agreed to hire the engineering firm of Brown and Mitchell to do preliminary design on putting traffic signals at intersections of Highway 90 and Washington Street, and Drinkwater Boulevard. The firm also will design an upgraded signal plan for Blue Meadow Road and Highway 90.

That action came after council members were told there's probably sufficient state and federal funding for most of the work -- if the city has its plans in order to qualify for funding.

City officials have been discussing a signal at Washington and-or Drinkwater for months. Meanwhile the city is upgrading the Blue Meadow Road intersection with Highway 90 and the opposite Main Street intersection as well.

The depot restoration project also has been in the hopper for months, but the city has yet to obtain title to the 1928 structure it wants to restore with federal transportation money. About one foot of the depot lies within 50 feet of the CSX railroad tracks, and CSX wants to give the city a "perpetual easement" on that portion of the depot instead of clear title.

That arrangement has to be cleared with federal transit authorities, said Mike Cuevas of Community Associates, who was hired Tuesday by the city to launch the project. She warned that the city's "window of opportunity" to keep its federal funding is getting "shorter and shorter and shorter."

In fact, Cuevas said the city has to hire an architect and have plans and specifications for the restoration on hand by

Building permits required in Hancock

BY ELLIS CUEVAS

Property owners of Hancock County planning property improvements are reminded that plans have to be checked by the county's building inspector.

The new building inspector is Harold (Willie) Gavney of Bay St. Louis, whom the Hancock County Board of Supervisors recently named to replace the late Don Murray.

Gavney said, building permits are needed for new homes and businesses, as well as additions in the county.

The areas where a permit is issued by the county building inspector is all of Hancock County excluding Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Diamondhead North of Interstate 10, these three areas need permits from their respective building inspectors.

The building inspector is located in the Tax Assessors office, Main Street, Bay St. Louis. Hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Persons seeking further information can call 467-5727, or 467-0172.

Building permits issued by the county in March was 20 and the number was increased in April to 29, Gavney said.

Gavney said the number of permits for new construction issued by the county thus far in 1994 has almost doubled 1993's.

ST. ANN AND ST. JOHN NEWS

Thoughts for meditation:
"The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. Attitude, to me, is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, than failures, than success, than what other people think or say or do. It is more important than appearance, giftedness or skill. It will make or break a company...a church...a home. The remarkable things we cannot change our past...we cannot change the fact that people will act in a certain way. We cannot change the inevitable. The only thing we can do is play on the one string that we have, and that is attitude...I am convinced that life is 10% what happens to me and 90% how I react to it. And so it is with you...we are in charge of our Attitudes."

Proposed comfort station?

Bay St. Louis city officials are thinking about building a comfort station behind the City Hall Annex. The preliminary plans were drawn to give City Council an idea of what the facility would look like, but alternatives are being discussed.

18-wheel commercial seafood trucks.

Mitchell, who also is the engineer for the county's renourishment program, said the county's stockpile of some 10,000 cubic yards of sand should be sufficient to complete the Jubilee project, and to add beach areas at Buccaneer and Clermont Harbor too. He also said creating a new beach at Jubilee requires a new seawall — otherwise the sand would drift southwesterly into the casino itself.

The agreement to set aside sand for Jubilee was first reached at the casino itself, county officials said. Board attorney Gerald Gex said he, Chancery Clerk Michael Nease, Ladner, and supervisors Wilmer Seymour and Howard Lizana were dining at the casino's buffet last week, when Baxter happened by. He said Baxter brought up the subject of the beach, urging a decision by the county before the contractor wrapped up work and pulled out of town. Gex said the "social gathering evolved into an informal meeting "by accident." Mitchell said Monday he had instructed the contractor to stockpile the extra sand, based on his understanding the board's revised wishes.

Ladner said the Jubilee project is a boon to Hancock County, considering a new stretch of public beach will be created and a major sheet-pile seawall construction project as well. The county will donate the sand to Jubilee for the work, he said, but the casino will haul and spread the sand.

Meanwhile, Mitchell presented the board with a change order for the $2.8 million contract with T.L. James — cutting the contract to $2,317,570.

The county agreed it would pay for timber anchor structures which had been specifically purchased for the project. In addition, the board agreed to replace two privately-owned piers which had been partially removed to accommodate the renourishment project. Gex had notified all pier owners along the renourishment path to leave a 30-foot pathway beside the seawall.

Since the project was unexpectedly shortened, Gex said the county is responsible for replacing the pier sections that were removed unnecessarily.

Monday, City Council convened an emergency meeting and agreed to issue an urgent appeal to the Corps to delay that work 21 days, giving the James Co. time to do the city work before demolishing its dredge, equipment and crews here.

At one point, James Co. officials said they possibly could leave a crew in Bay St. Louis and dispatch another, smaller dredge to do the city work. But that plan fell through when the city learned that the back-up dredge is in disrepair and not available.

Tuesday, city council agreed to ask for help from U.S. Sen. Trent Lott and Rep. Gene Taylor, in trying to convince the Corps to hold off on its Iuka dredging for a few weeks. A spokesman for Taylor said that plea was made Wednesday on the city's behalf, but no response was immediately available. Lott's office told the city it was working on the issue through its liaison with the Corps.

"I hate to see this happening because we were so close," council member Charles Scianna said as the bad news continued to unfold.

"If we're going to do it, we need to do it now. Not a year from now or six months from now," Mayor Eddie Favre commented.

Still, city officials said they are pursuing other options for

FoodSOURCE signup set

Signup for this month's FoodSOURCE is through May 15. Food delivery date is May 28 from 8 to 9:30 a.m.

Each packet is $13, plus $1 for transportation, and each participant must volunteer two hours of community service per packet. Those paying in food stamps, must pay $13 in food stamps and $1 in cash. With cash or check, the amount is $14.

The community service must be completed prior to the delivery date. All orders must be paid by the May 15 deadline. One dollar goes for transportation costs.

A packet consists of frozen meats, fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables and bonus items such as pinto beans, rice and seasoning.

In order to protect frozen foods and ensure freshness, Hancock FoodSOURCE hours for pick up will be from 8 to 9:30 a.m. To sign up, call Brother Charles Clark at 255-3066, the Pass Christian Senior Citizens Center at 452-3314 or the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center at 467-9292.

Jubilee adds to county coffers

BY MARY G. SEILEY

Business is picking up at Jubilee Casino — and so is the cash that the county gets from the operation.

Jubilee Chief operating officer George Baxter said Tuesday the county should be getting some $180,000 as its 3.2 percent share of the casino's April operations. For March's business, the county took in $104,442, said county comptroller Patty Greer.

"Business has picked up considerably," said Baxter, thanks to an aggressive marketing program. The casino has some 20 charter flights scheduled for this month, flying gamblers in from Dallas, Norfolk, Atlanta, Huntsville and Florida locations.

In addition, the casino has cranked up business by busing casino-goers from other points — an average of 20 buses per day transport 44 passengers each, Baxter said.

The casino has launched an expansion project to significantly boost its on-site parking, and add a restaurant and hotel next to the casino itself.

Waveland

Demboski said. He mentioned that the county and Bay St. Louis also donated some truck time to haul the sandy clay gravel.

Council was also 3-1 in ratifying Betsy Phillips to the zoning board. Weidmann voted no.

Mayor Stella Frilot was authorized to attend a Mississippi Municipal Association executive committee meeting Wednesday. Frilot is a member of the executive committee. The vote by the Aldermen was 3-1, with Weidmann voting no.

Waveland received two bids for the body of an old garbage truck and other metals. Boudin's Waste & Recycling was high bidder at $1,275. The other bid was $305 by Southern Scrap Metal.

Alderman Curtis Colson discussed a problem he has noticed in the city on how residents are not following the ordinance in putting out trash.

The council and mayor agreed to advertise the section on boxing, bagging and bundling of trash.

Some discussion was held on the resurfacing of some streets within the city. Frilot reported normally the monies are divided five ways, one fifth each alderman and one fifth for the mayor.

Weidmann indicated he did not like the division and thought the monies should be divided four ways for the resurfacing.

CUEVAS QUOTES

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Don't forget the annual Exchange Club's annual Fun Raisin Auction to be held Friday at the Hancock County Civic Center on Longfellow Road. Previewing is scheduled for 6 p.m. followed by the auction at 7 p.m. Food and refreshments will be available.

Barbie Haas, auction committee chairman, reports a goal of $15,000 has been set this year by the Exchange Club.

Proceeds from the auction go to the Exchange Club's Family Child Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse. The Gulfport Exchange Club assists in the auction which is the club's big fund raiser every year.

You can bid on so many different items. Up for grabs will be things like a windsurfer, artwork by local artists, a signed football jersey by Hancock County's own Brett Favre, quarterback of the Green Bay Packers, and the list goes on and on.

Admission is free and Exchange Club members have been working for months collecting the assortment of items for this auction.

The auction may have just the item, or items you have been seeking for years.

Why not drop by for the auction and join in the fun. Remember, all proceeds go to a very deserving agency.

I hope to see you at the auction.

I keep being asked just where does one go to renew or get a new Mississippi Drivers license.

The new location is at the Shoreline Park Voting Precinct building on the Kiln/Waveland Cutoff Road near Highway 603.

The licenses are issued on Tuesday of each week in Hancock County.

Or you can get a driver license at the Highway Patrol's office in Gulfport off Highway 90.

It may be wise for everyone to check the expiration date on their Mississippi Driver's licenses, as time goes by fast and it may be expired.

Brake stickers need to be checked too, as I see several about town that are past due, some over a year.

It was an interesting address given to the Diamondhead Business & Professional Organization last week by the area's Legislative delegation.

State Senator Bill Johnson, Representatives J.P. Compretta and Herb Frierson, told members about several important Bills passed by the Legislature this year and their effects.

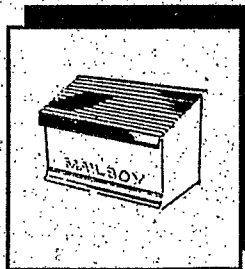

It is good to see how well the delegation from Hancock County works together for the betterment of the area.

Among the popular topics was the new law which reduces the cost of auto tags, roads, and bridges.

Sixth graders tour Echo

Some 400 area sixth graders from Diamondhead Academy, Bay Middle School and Hancock North Elementary as part of the Mississippi Coast Crime Commission's were on tour last week as part of the 'Me-ology, Too Good For Drugs' program. Students toured The Echo office, Hancock Criminal Justice Facility, Courthouse, Bay City Hall and Hancock Historical Society's Kate Labarano building. In photo, Ellis C. Cuevas, Echo publisher, explains the process used for four-color photos. The annual tours were arranged by Kathleen Kemp. (Echo staff photo by Randy Ponder).

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Reader feels casino needs to change sign

Dear Sea Coast Echo,
As a Clermont Harbor property owner, I want to believe that the casinos have the best interest of the community at the top of their list of concerns. Therefore, I want to approach this matter as an oversight on the part of Jubilee Casino.

At the intersection of Lower Bay Road and Lakeshore Road, diagonally across the street from an elementary school, stands a large sign proclaiming that Jubilee Casino is "just 3 minutes away."

The distance from that intersection down Lakeshore Road to Beach Blvd. is 2.2 miles, and the posted speed limit is 35 miles per hour. Observing the speed limit, this distance is traveled in 3 minutes, 48 seconds.

Turning onto Beach Blvd. from Lakeshore Road, the distance to Jubilee Casino is one-half mile, and the posted speed limit is 30 miles per hour. Again, observing the speed limit, it takes one minute to travel this stretch.

Therefore, observing the posted speed limits, it takes 4 minutes, 48 seconds to drive from the "3 minutes" sign to the casino.

No big deal? Consider that gaming patrons anxious to arrive at Jubilee after a long drive are subconsciously begin suggested to arrive there three minutes from that point. In order to cover that distance in three minutes, they would have to drive 54 miles per hour.

Ironically, in both directions on Lakeshore Road from the intersection at Lower Bay Road, casino signs are posted which say:

School's just ahead
So check your speed
Some caution here
Is what you need

I would suggest that Jubilee Casino truly put safety first and change their sign to read that their casino is "3 miles away," rather than "3 minutes away," and ensure that their customers don't get used to speeding down Lakeshore Road in their enthusiasm to reach their destination.

Sincerely,
Robert A. Walker
Metairie, La.

Calif. reader complains about Confederate Heritage coverage

To the Editor:
I'm writing in response to the big front page article and display of the fallen confederate soldiers and their fallen flag. This article represents pain and a sense of oppression for African-Americans; and a large amount of White-Americans.

This part of history is one that I'd like to think never happened. It did happen, so I find myself asking, "Why did this happen?"

The answer being a very painful one. It was to keep the south separate and to permit slavery to continue. Why in the 90's do white southerners feel the need to commemorate and celebrate this?

And to know that you have shown your colors by making April, the month that we also celebrate the Lord's death and resurrection, a confederate heritage month.

What kind of message are white southerners still continuing to send to their innately good, innocent, and non-prejudiced children?

At the same time of proclaiming such a heritage month that you should forget and be ashamed of because of the inhumane way it makes you look, you still tell the school children that the day that the rest of this country celebrates Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., a man of peace and equality for all, is a non school day because of a staff meeting.

I think that it is time for southern whites to stand up and be counted as a kinder and more gentle American. America doesn't understand and will never appreciate you until you change!

Cochran calls for end to unfunded mandates

In a radio news conference with reporters, Senator Thad Cochran said he supports legislation to stop unfunded federal mandates.

"If we, in Congress, can't provide the funds for local governments to comply with new federal mandates, then we shouldn't pass the legislation in the first place," said Cochran.

Reporters questions stemmed from a Governmental Affairs hearing Thursday where members, including Cochran, heard from mayors, governors and various state officials on the issue.

The Congressional Budget

Office estimates the cost to local governments for implementing new federal mandates has increased from $225 million in 1986 to $2.8 billion in 1991.

Some recent examples of unfunded mandates include: Motor Voter, Americans with Disabilities, Fair Labor Standards, Clean Water, Safe Drinking Water, and Resource Conservation and Recovery.

Cochran is also concerned some of these mandates may be costing local taxpayers more than they should.

"In many instances the federal government has requested construction of expensive facilities when less expensive ones would have fulfilled the requirement. We need to make sure these agencies aren't ordering a Cadillac when a Ford Escort would have done the job," said Cochran.

Practical tips will keep bugs from bugging you this summer

Worried about summer bugs invading your home and yard? Dr. James Jarratt, an entomologist with the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service at Mississippi State, has a few tips which could help to keep those pesky critters at bay.

• Ticks and Fleas. First of all, mow all weeds and vegetation in your yard. Ticks crawl up tall vegetation, then easily cling to the legs of people or animals walking by. Jarratt suggests using an insect repellent sprayed on the tops of shoes, legs and arms. It's also a good idea to spray around your wrists and belt line.

Buy an insecticide labeled for ticks and fleas and spray your yard and around your house. But, don't assume that an outdoor spray can also be used indoors. Read the label very carefully, Jarratt cautions.

Fleas or ticks usually enter a home because of a dog or cat. Precautions against ticks make both the pet and the home owner more comfortable. Flea collars help small, short-haired pets, but it is more effective to dip larger, longer-haired dogs once a month in May, June and July.

A large, gray female tick will feed until it falls off. If it falls off inside your home, it will lay between 2,000 and 3,000 eggs which will hatch in five to six days. For this reason it is especially important to watch pets and clean their bedding regularly.

If you find a tick on your pet, remove the insect with a pair of tweezers instead of using your fingers, Jarratt says. Rub the spot with alcohol afterwards.

• Chiggers. Chiggers generally can be prevented with insect repellent. On humans, the insect crawl to a place where clothing fits tightly (such as the belt line) and can be very uncomfortable. There is no way to get rid of them; bathe regularly and wait it out three to four days. You may want to ask your doctor for a medicine or cream to relieve itching.

• Mosquitoes. Bug zappers may kill a few bugs but may also increase the number of mosquitoes around your house drawn by the light.

Make sure there is no standing water where mosquitoes can breed. Clean out gutters, bird baths and old buckets, for example. If you have a pond, keep the bank clear so that fish can easily eat the mosquitoes.

• Bees and Wasps. Beware of swarms which usually occur in April, May and June. Watch closely for wasps and hornets' nests around the house and knock them down early before they get out of hand. To stop wasps, Jarratt suggests splashing a bucket of soapy water on the nest.

Watch out for bees nesting in the walls of your home. If you suspect the insects are in your walls, call an exterminator.

• Stinging Fire Ants. Deposit baits all over the yard. Baits are insecticide on a piece of grit which the ants will pick up and take to the mound.

Mound treatments may be mixed with water and poured over the mound. They are not as effective as baits because they kill only the ants in the mound at that time.

For more information about the creepy, crawly insects of summer, call your county extension office of the Mississippi State entomology department at (601) 325-2085.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

From the Mississippi Economic Council

Voters can stop government growth

The Mississippi Employment Security Commission has released the numbers for employment growth for February, the latest tabulation.

The good news is that employment in Mississippi's non-farm sector grew by more than 40,000 jobs since February, 1993 — another sign of the state's positive economic recovery.

The bad news is that the government sector — state and local — has continued to grow, as well. About 4,000 new state employees were added to the public payroll during the same period.

Once again, rather than shrinking in size, government continues to grow, costing the taxpayers of Mississippi dearly. For years, the Mississippi Economic Council has pointed to the Legislature for leadership in trimming the size of government so that taxpayer dollars can be used on priority needs.

Approximately one of every five non-farm employees in Mississippi now works in the government sector.

Now the Mississippi Economic Council is pointing to the voters of Mississippi to take charge by supporting the initiative and referendum to reduce the size of the Legislature.

Mississippians must send a clear message to the state Capitol: Time is up for those who continue to increase the size of state government and the tax burden on the people who pay their salaries — the public.

Voters can do their part by signing a petition in support of legislative reduction. Contact the MEC office, telephone 969-0025, for more information.

Senator Cochran is a co-sponsor of a bill sponsored by Senator Dirk Kempthorne (R-ID) which would prevent Congress from shifting the cost of new federal legislation to state and local governments.

Library bids taken under advisement

By MARY G. SHERRY
Hancock County officials meet Wednesday to consider bids for expanding and renovating the city-county library.

The bids were opened Monday and taken under advisement.

Board of Supervisors President Michael Ladner said the bids overall were about $200,000 more than the construction project had been expected to cost. "If somebody can tell us where to get a couple of hundred thousand dollars, we'll be in good shape," Ladner said Wednesday.

Library officials had asked the county to consider extending the bid deadline beyond May 2, because response to the bid offering was sluggish. Board attorney Gerald Gex, however, said he wasn't "comfortable" legally with extending the bid deadline.

While Gex said he knows of no law prohibiting such action, he also doesn't know of a law that allows it.

The library has amassed some $1.05 million for its entire project, including $676,000 set aside for expansion and renovations. The funds, from a variety of state and local government sources, include money to furnish more new structures and upgrade the library's facilities.

Quotes opened by the county included a low base bid from Gordon Myrick Inc., of Gulfport, $855,700. Other base bids included George Hopkins Inc., $888,994; and G.M.&R. Construction Co., Inc., $919,000.

Library Director Prima Plache said Wednesday the county will consider various alterations to the project before deciding to accept a bid or re-bid the entire project.

late September. Since the city doesn't own the building yet, Cuevas said her firm is willing to waive its proposed $10,000 up-front retainer fee for managing the project, until title is obtained.

The company will proceed with groundwork on the project, at $75 per hour, until the city obtains title to the building and a full contract is signed with the consulting firm.

Council President James Thriffley said there was some concern locally over why the city is buying the building and what it hopes to do with it once it's restored.

Cuevas responded that "your opportunities are limitless with the building and also with the grounds." She said a combination of public and private uses of the structure could boost tourism, give a shot in the arm to area businesses, and have the structure generating income as well.

"It's a win-win project for the city and ... you can take this project as far as you choose to take it," Cuevas said. Councilman James Rutherford said the city had waited long enough to get on with the project. "Let's go ahead and get started on this thing," he said.

In other business, council heard a plea to barricade off Felicity Street to prevent Casino Magic employees and customers from using it as a shortcut. The mayor and council members said the casino has been highly cooperative in discouraging use of Felicity, but a reminder would be made.

Cathy Cox Mauffray said her daughter had been injured Tuesday as she rode a bicycle down Felicity and was hit by a car. The girl was bruised and shaken, she said, but could have been killed by the hit-and-run driver.

Mauffray said a city crackdown on speeding had left her and many of her neighbors with traffic tickets - but she said the volume of traffic is too much for the narrow residential street.

Mayor Eddie Favre said more people would use Casino Magic Drive off Blue Meadow Road, but for the fact that it's two lanes along part of the route. The Corps of Engineers won't let the casino widen the road, he said, until wetlands issues are resolved. That won't happen until the Corps approves the casino's overall development plan, the mayor said.

Favre also said that most of the tickets written on Felicity are for residents' speeding - not casino workers.

Favre and council members said several options for lessening the traffic on Felicity, without barricading it, remain under study.

In other action, council agreed to Favre's appointment of Barbara Redding to the Community Action Agency Board, and David Bassett to the Planning and Zoning Commission. Redding replaces Maurice Singleton, and Bassett takes the slot vacated by Ron Murray.

Walter Anderson Museum marks third birthday

May marks the third birthday of the Walter Anderson Museum of Art, and staff and volunteers have planned a fun-filled, all-day birthday party packed with events for the whole family.

The party will take place Saturday, May 7 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the museum, the Community Center and outside. Activities include mural painting for young children and teens; storytelling, face painting, sidewalk chalk drawing, two special dance and music performances by Leif Anderson and Marc Howell, a special sale at the museum gift shop and more.

Party goers will be among the first to see the new exhibition "A Potpourri of Walter Anderson," which will be on display from May 6 through June 5. Admission to the museum, and all events on May 7 will be free.

Those "wild and crazy ladies" of the D'head newcomers club are getting serious and want all to be prepared for the "Hurricane Season". Representatives from Keesler Air Force Base will speak on hurricane preparedness at the next luncheon meeting Friday, May 13 at 11:30 a.m. at the D'head Day's Inn. Husbands and guests are welcome since this an issue vital to all in our area. Please send your checks at $10 per person to Evelyn Kibler 6525 Koula Dr. in D'head no later than May 8. Next meeting; September coffee.

DEADLINE

May 6 is the last date for reservations to the D'head Community Assoc. meeting dinner on Friday, May 13, at 6:30 p.m. at the Country club. All candidates for new officers and directors of the P.O.A. have been invited to make a brief presentation at this meeting which is usually the best attended of the year. The club can only handle 200 reservations as seating is limited. Please call Jean Jaumot at 255-3160.

Please take some time to learn about the folks who are running for election to the P.O.A. and vote responsibly for the betterment of all of our community.

SENIOR VOLUNTEERS

R.S.V.P. will be helping to celebrate National Tourism week this Friday, May 6 from 10 a.m. at the MS Welcome Center. All you senior volunteers are encouraged to exhibit your talents and crafts. Lunch will be provided by R.S.V.P.

HOWLING SUCCESS

AAA offers wet weather driving tips

Wet weather does not have to dampen your spring and summer travel plans. If you drive safely, advises AAA Mississippi.

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, 14 percent of all accidents in the United States occur when roads are wet. "Even motorists who are accustomed to typical spring and summer showers find it difficult to drive during heavy rainstorms," said Danon Jones, director of Public and Government Relations for AAA Mississippi.

"The first thing to remember is that the odds are greater that you will have an accident in wet weather. During 1992 alone, there were approximately 9000 accidents on Mississippi roads during wet weather conditions."

AAA Mississippi offers the following precautions for driving in rainy weather:

Since a hard rain can limit visibility and traction, it is helpful to use your headlights so others can see you and to slow down and avoid hard braking and turning sharply.

Keep more distance between your vehicle and the one in front of you than you would during normal road conditions because stopping on a slippery surface requires more distance.

The best way to stop on a slippery surface is to keep the heel of your foot on the floor and use your toe to apply firm, steady pressure on the brake pedal. Stop just short of locking the wheels.

If visibility is so limited that you cannot see the edges of the road or other vehicles at a safe distance, pull off the road and

Miracle Walk

K.T. Au Akita owned by Ed and Linda Theriault of D'head won "Prettiest and Best of Show" at the D'head S.P.C.A. dog show held at the E. Rec. Center last Saturday, April 30. There were 34 entries in 8 categories and a total of approximately $225 was raised to help the D'head S.P.C.A. and was a fun event for all the owners and their pets. Watch this column for the silent auction and style show at the Country club on May 26.

MOTHER'S DAY

A mother in Wisconsin whose grown children live away from home has written 10 reasons why mothers need to hear from their children:

P-for the peace of mind it brings

L-for the longing to know you're alright

E-for the eagerness to hear your voice

A-for the anticipation when the phone rings

S-for the sound of your sweet voice

E-for each and everytime we get to chat

C-for the chance to hear what's new

A-for keeping our staying in touch, ALIVE

L-for shortening the long distance between us

L-for being able to say directly I Love You!

This Sunday May 8th, honor, love and cherish your mother and have a beautiful week.

As a resident of the city of Waveland, I, like many of you, am concerned about the future of our city. The Gulf Coast has, and is continuing, to enjoy a great deal of prosperity and our next Mayor should be a well seasoned individual who has experience successfully managing change and prosperity.

Jack Toomey is exactly such a man. Jack has proudly served the citizens of Waveland as an Alderman in the past. Jack Toomey owns and operates Toomey's Service Station on Coleman Ave. in Waveland. A life long resident of Waveland, a successful businessman, Jack has those rare qualities that make him the perfect Mayor for the city of Waveland.

For our future and the future of our rapidly growing city, I would like to urge you to join me in supporting Mr. Jack Toomey for Mayor of Waveland.

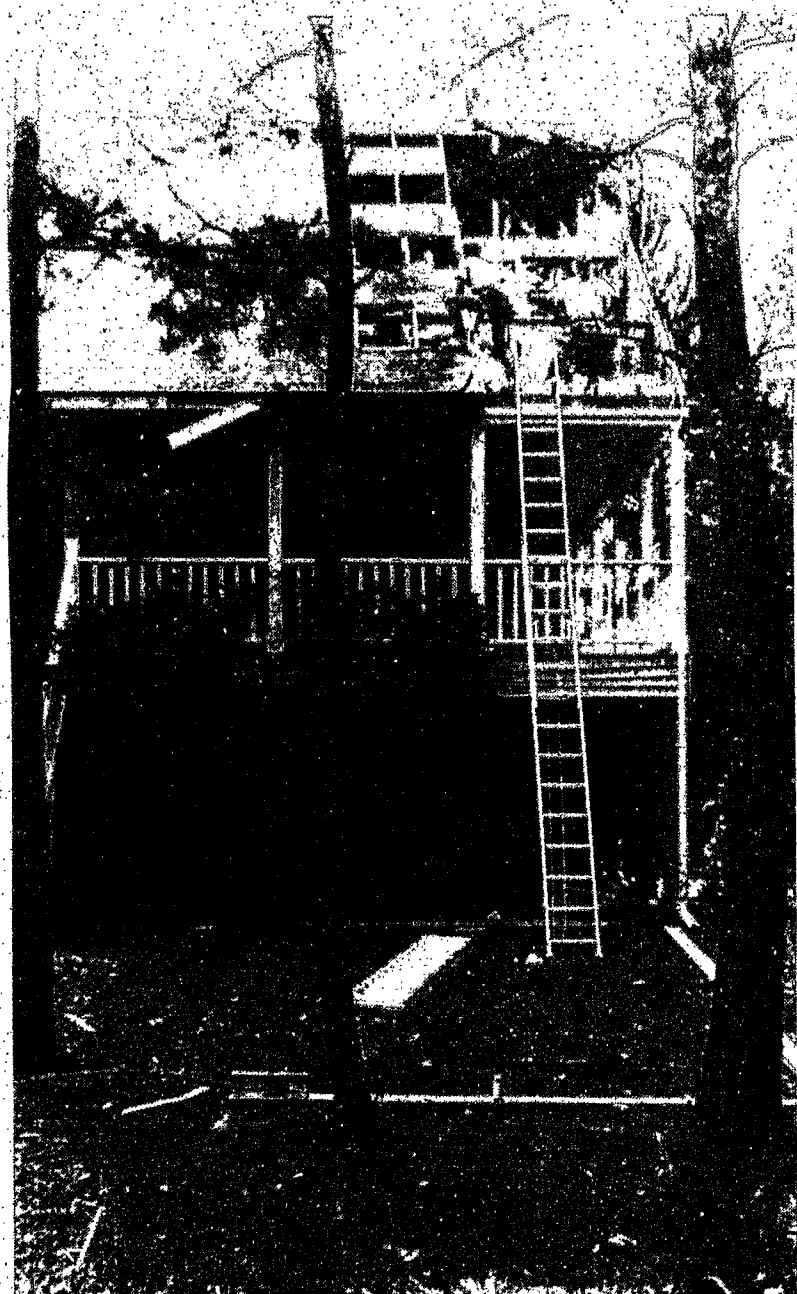

Sincerely,
W.E. (Pete) Beebe

First Baptist holds Eliza Young Day

Eliza Young

The First Baptist Church of Bay St. Louis celebrated May 1, 1894, as Eliza Young Day, honoring her during the evening worship service.

An appreciation service was held, recognizing Mrs. Young's forty-two years of faithful service to the congregation as the Church Custodian and Nursery Worker.

The service included musical tributes, testimonies, special recognitions and presentations. Mrs. Young was praised for her loyalty, dedication and Christian influence while serving under nine different pastors from 1952 until 1994.

Dr. Ed J. Deuschle, the present pastor, presented Eliza a certificate of appreciation and a book of letters from well-wishers including: Gov. Kirk Fordice, Senators Trent Lott and Thad Cochran, Congressman Gene Taylor, Judge Dan

M. Russell Jr., who noted the many former pastors of the Baptist Church and many friends.

The congregation presented Mrs. Young with a beautiful rocking chair, a financial love gift, and held a reception in her honor to conclude the evening activities.

Mrs. Eliza Young has lived most of her life in Bay St. Louis, residing at 212 Citizen Street.

She is the mother of five children and has six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She is an active member of Valena C. Jones Memorial United Methodist Church, pastored by Rev. Bobby Dailey, who praised Mrs. Young during the Appreciation Service for her contributions to church, family, and the betterment of community life.

Author to appear at BookRack Sat.

When most people leave their full-time jobs, you would think they would slow down and take life easy. That is not the case with Mary Fonseca, who decided to hit the road and write a book.

Since beginning her second career as a free-lance writer, Fonseca has traveled down nearly every major highway in Mississippi and Louisiana in producing her first book, Weekend Getaways in Louisiana and Mississippi.

While some of the areas visited were uncharted territory for Fonseca, others were quite familiar. She and her husband and five children would often find themselves on short weekends, camping or touring new places. Now with the children grown, she has turned her vacation experiences into a guidebook.

"I feel I have been given an opportunity few people will have, to visit practically every area of my home state, and a neighboring state, and share my experiences in a book," the author said. "Meeting people, and listening to the stories they tell, has added an intriguing element to the writing of this book."

Fonseca began her writing career in the 1970s while working as a substitute school teacher. She has earned a number of admirable writing credits, with pieces appearing in Louisiana Life, Americana, Nation's Business, the New Orleans Times-Picayune, Mississippi Magazine and others.

She is an award winning writer with past accolades from the Press Club of New Orleans and is a member of the Business and Professional Toastmasters Club.

Fonseca will be at the BookRack in Marketown Shopping Center, next to Jitney Jungle, in Bay St. Louis from 10am to noon, Saturday, May 7, for an autograph party. For more information, call 467-2660.

Mother's Day program set

Holmes Chapel United Methodist Church cordially invites you to participate in our Mother's Day Program. They are planning a "parade of 100 ethnically dressed women" rising to promote the gospel message on Sunday, May 8, 1994 at 11:00 a.m. The location is Highway 604 and Whites Road in Pearlinton.

Our Mother's Day speaker is their very own Mrs. Mary Lee Evans of Pearlinton. She will speak from the theme: "What If Women Keep Silent In The Church Today?"

Please come and support in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

Man hits million dollar jackpot

On Thursday evening Gerald Adams of Lockport, Ill., became the second Mississippi Megabucks millionaire in a span of just three days. Adams was visiting the Grand Casino in Gulfport when he hit the $1,013,102 Megabucks slot jackpot.

Adams was playing on an IGT Megabucks slot machine which is part of a system connected with other dockside casinos throughout the state.

The jackpot is paid through an annuity. He will receive an annual payment of about $49,000 for the next 20 years.

Tigers nip Hawks; earn state playoff berth

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The Bay High Tiger baseball team slipped past the Hancock Hawks on April 29 to earn a berth in the South State playoffs.

The Tigers rallied to score four runs to tie the game in the bottom of the seventh inning and scored a run in the bottom of the eighth to win the game and earn the Division 8 Class 4A runner-up spot.

The Tigers scored in all innings except the sixth en route to the victory.

Jeff Hopgood got the win and collected 2 RBIs in the game. Mark Dupuy also had 2 RBIs in the game. Raleigh Murphy went 3 for 3 for the Tigers with a double.

Hancock was led by Scotty Davis who had 3 RBIs for the game. Lance Wedgeworth went 2 for 3 and scored 2 runs for the Hawks.

The Tigers improved to 12-12 on the season and will travel to McComb for the first round of the state playoffs.

The Bay St. Louis Parks & Playgrounds annual Summer Baseball program's parade is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Frank Perniciaro, director said.

The parade is to include T-Ball, Pitching Machine league, and also Babe Ruth Girls Slow Pitch league members.

The Babe Ruth Girls Slow Pitch league is new this summer and consists of four teams, girls ages 8 to 10.

T-Ball will have 16 teams of boys and girls ages 4 to 6.

The pitching Machine league consists of eight teams of boys ages 7, 8 and 9.

The parade is to begin forming at 9 a.m. at Bay Middle School on Ulman Avenue.

The parade route is Ulman to Dunbar, Dunbar to Esplanade, Esplanade to Ranch, Ranch to the ball park where opening ceremonies will follow.

Bay mayor Eddie Favre is scheduled to throwout the first pitch.

Parents, relatives and the general public is invited and urged to attend, Perniciaro said.

This will mark the first season where every team in the Bay Parks and Playgrounds program are coached and managed by volunteers, an elated Perniciaro stated.

This has enabled the program to expand in number of teams in the leagues.

At this time Perniciaro said, "I would really like for the public to know that the cooperation of the volunteers has been tremendous. We have a total of 24 teams in the program this summer and this means there are some 60 volunteer managers and coaches."

"I would like to say how much I appreciate their help and support and urge all volunteers to continue in our youth sports as their children move up in programs," Perniciaro added.

All games are played at the Athletic Drive Complex adjacent to the J.D. McCullough stadium.

Playing field expansions have been made this season too, by the city.

The Bay Parks & Playgrounds has a total 340 boys and girls in the T-Ball and Pitching Machine leagues, that are from ages 4 to 9, Perniciaro said.

Perniciaro's staff this season consists of six summer part-timers (college and high school students) and one annual part-timer.

Tigers win playoff game

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The Bay High Tiger baseball team won the first game of a best of three series with McComb on Tuesday by the score of 11-9.

The Tigers played on the road in McComb and will come back to Bay St. Louis for the second game on Thursday night at 6 p.m.

Mark Dupuy, Raleigh Murphy, and Wali Shabazz each had two hits for the Tigers en route to the win. The three batters also tallied six RBIs between them.

The Tigers are now 13-12 overall.

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

It's time to go fishin' y'all. The first annual Nereids fishing tournament was completed this past Sunday.

I went to the weigh-in for closing time at 6:00.

Now I don't want the fishin' buddies to think that the turtle is dedicated to the extreme by going out at six o'clock on a Sunday evening just to get the result of a fishing rodeo.

No, you see the word came down that they were not only gonna weigh the fish in but they were gonna clean and cook the fish on the spot.

Now, no self-respecting turtle could possibly pass up the opportunity to eat a fresh fish meal.

I need to digress for a moment and say that the Nereids fishin' rodeo was a feast from start to finish.

They started the rodeo off by filling up N. Beach Blvd. with a red fog. The good kind of red fog. You know, the kind that is created by boiling crawfish.

They had a box of crawfish which included not only the tasty crustaceans but numerous new potatoes and ears of corn for only five bucks.

It was great. Then at the end they had Chappy and Bill Whitfield cook up the catch. You could almost think you had died and gone to heaven with all the good eats the Nereids fishing rodeo had in just a few days.

Since this was a Fishing rodeo, I guess it is time to talk about the fish.

Let's start with the winners and their fish. Speckled Trout 3lbs. 9oz.-Jay Friche; Red fish 16lbs. 9oz.-Chuck Breath; Flounder 2lbs. 3oz.-Ted Schimdt; Lemon fish 3lbs. 4oz.-Belva Chevis; Red Snapper 51lbs. 3oz.-Helen Gains; Spanish Mackerel 2lbs. 8oz.-Dan Young.

The weighmaster was George Wright. George was pleased by the turn out. There were about 150 registrants for the rodeo.

The only disappointing thing was the weather. It stunk! But even that had a nice outcome as it is reported that the concession stand did a brisk business on sea sickness pills.

Maybe that was why there was so many folks at the scale closing time that had a somewhat green pallor to their skin. I thought maybe they were drinking green beer left over from St. Patrick Day festivities.

Something had effect of a few of the participants as the turtle was told some interesting fish stories. Chappy related that he could not catch any fish because his whole tackle box was full of "bent hooks".

Hank Rankin said that he would have won the rodeo but the only fish he caught he ate. His wife Joan said "no way" if you would have seen how rough the water was out there you would realize that folks did not want anything in their stomachs.

Ames Kergosen and Hank Renkin related as a story to me about their experiences out by Raccoon Island that made me wonder about the type of sea sickness pills they were taking.

You see, they told me with not only a straight face but with great gusto about the six foot long green sea monster they hooked out by the island.

It seems they hooked this fish that they fought for 15 or 20 minutes. It kept trying to go around the boat so they had one man get out of the boat and hold the nose of the boat on the shore.

This kept the monster from tangling in the anchor line. Eventually they saw four feet of its body and tried to net the monster, whereupon it ate the net and swam off.

They were sure it would have won the special fish category in the rodeo.

This is one rodeo that all the fishin' buddies need to put on their must attend list for next year.

By now you must have guessed that the close in fishing is slow. The water is muddy. Hopefully it will clear up and the fishing will improve real fast like.

This weeks wonderful wise words. I don't have any.

What kind of weird stuff do you think they put in those sea sickness pills, turtle?

The Bay St. Louis Parks & Playgrounds annual Summer Baseball program's parade is scheduled for 9:30 a.m., Saturday, Frank Perniciaro, director said.

The parade is to include T-Ball, Pitching Machine league, and also Babe Ruth Girls Slow Pitch league members.

The Babe Ruth Girls Slow Pitch league is new this summer and consists of four teams, girls ages 8 to 10.

T-Ball will have 16 teams of boys and girls ages 4 to 6.

The pitching Machine league consists of eight teams of boys ages 7, 8 and 9.

The parade is to begin forming at 9 a.m. at Bay Middle School on Ulman Avenue.

The parade route is Ulman to Dunbar, Dunbar to Esplanade, Esplanade to Ranch, Ranch to the ball park where opening ceremonies will follow.

Bay mayor Eddie Favre is scheduled to throw out the first pitch.

Parents, relatives and the general public is invited and urged to attend, Perniciaro said.

This will mark the first season where every team in the Bay Parks and Playgrounds program are coached and managed by volunteers, an elated Perniciaro stated.

This has enabled the program to expand in number of teams in the leagues.

At this time Perniciaro said, "I would really like for the public to know that the cooperation of the volunteers has been tremendous. We have a total of 24 teams in the program this summer and this means there are some 60 volunteer managers and coaches."

"I would like to say how much I appreciate their help and support and urge all volunteers to continue in our youth sports as their children move up in programs," Perniciaro added.

All games are played at the Athletic Drive Complex adjacent to the J.D. McCullough stadium.

Playing field expansions have been made this season too, by the city.

The Bay Parks & Playgrounds has a total 340 boys and girls in the T-Ball and Pitching Machine leagues, that are from ages 4 to 9, Perniciaro said.

Perniciaro's staff this season consists of six summer part timers (college and high school students) and one annual part timer.

Tigers win playoff game

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The Bay High Tiger baseball team won the first game of a best of three series with McComb on Tuesday by the score of 11-9.

The Tigers played on the road in McComb and will come back to Bay St. Louis for the second game on Thursday night at 6 p.m.

Mark Dupuy, Raleigh Murphy, and Wali Shabazz each had two hits for the Tigers en route to the win. The three batters also tallied six RBIs between them.

The Tigers are now 13-12 overall.

gonna weigh the fish in but they were gonna clean and cook the fish on the spot.

Now, no self-respecting turtle

Tigers nip Hawks; earn state playoff berth

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
The Bay High Tiger baseball team slipped past the Hancock Hawks on April 29 to earn a berth in the South State playoffs.

The Tigers rallied to score four runs to tie the game in the bottom of the seventh inning and scored a run in the bottom of the eighth to win the game and earn the Division 8 Class 4A runner-up spot. The Tigers scored in all innings except the sixth en route to the victory.

Jeff Hopgood got the win and collected 2 RBI's in the game. Mark Dupuy also had 2 RBI's in the game. Raleigh Murphy went 3 for 3 for the Tigers with a double.

Hancock was led by Scotty Davis who had 3 RBI's for the game. Lance Wedgeworth went 2 for 3 and scored 2 runs for the Hawks.

The Tigers improved to 12-12 on the season and will travel to McComb for the first round of the state playoffs.

The Babe Ruth Girls Slow Pitch league is new this summer and consists of four teams, girls ages 8 to 10.

T-Ball will have 16 teams of boys and girls ages 4 to 6.

The pitching Machine league consists of eight teams of boys ages 7, 8 and 9.

The parade is to begin forming at 9 a.m. at Bay Middle School on Ulman Avenue.

The parade route is Ulman to Dunbar, Dunbar to Esplanade, Esplanade to Ranch, Ranch to the ball park where opening ceremonies will follow.

Bay mayor Eddie Favre is scheduled to throw out the first pitch.

Parents, relatives and the general public is invited and urged to attend, Pernicaro said.

This will mark the first season where every team in the Bay Parks and Playgrounds program are coached and managed by volunteers, an elated Pernicaro stated.

This has enabled the program to expand in number of teams in the leagues.

At this time Pernicaro said, "I would really like for the public to know that the cooperation of the volunteers has been tremendous. We have a total of 24 teams in the program this summer and this means there are some 60 volunteer managers and coaches."

"I would like to say how much I appreciate their help and support and urge all volunteers to continue in our youth sports as their children move up in programs," Pernicaro added.

All games are played at the Athletic Drive Complex adjacent to the J.D. McCullough stadium.

Playing field expansions have been made this season too, by the city.

The Bay Parks & Playgrounds has a total 340 boys and girls in the T-Ball and Pitching Machine leagues, that are from ages 4 to 9, Pernicaro said.

Pernicaro's staff this season consists of six summer part timers (college and high school students) and one annual part timer.

Tigers win playoff game

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The Bay High Tiger baseball team won the first game of a best of three series with McComb on Tuesday by the score of 11-9.

The Tigers played on the road in McComb and will come back to Bay St. Louis for the second game on Thursday night at 6 p.m.

Mark Dupuy, Raleigh Murphy, and Wali Shabazz each had two hits for the Tigers en route to the win. The three batters also tallied six RBI's between them.

The Tigers are now 13-12 overall.

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

It's time to go fishin' y'all. The first annual Nereids fishing tournament was completed this past Sunday.

I went to the weigh-in for closing time at 6:00.

Now I don't want the fishin' buddies to think that the turtle is dedicated to the extreme by going out at six o'clock on a Sunday evening just to get the result of a fishing rodeo.

No, you see the word came down that they were not only gonna weigh the fish in but they were gonna clean and cook the fish on the spot.

Now, no self respecting turtle could possibly pass up the opportunity to eat a fresh fish meal.

I need to digress for a moment and say that the Nereids fishin' rodeo was a feast from start to finish.

They started the rodeo off by filling up N. Beach Blvd. with a red fog. The good king of red fog. You know, the kind that is created by boiling crawfish.

They had a box of crawfish which included not only the tasty crustaceans but numerous new potatoes and ears of corn for only five bucks.

It was great. Then at the end they had Chappy and Bill Whitfield cook up the catch. You could almost think you had died and gone to heaven with all the good eats the Nereids fishing rodeo had in just a few days.

Since this was a Fishing rodeo, I guess it is time to talk about the fish.

Let's start with the winners and their fish. Speckled Trout 3lbs. 9oz.-Jay Friche; Red fish 16lbs. 9oz.-Chuck Breath; Flounder 2lbs. 3oz.-Ted Schmidt; Lemon fish 3lbs. 4oz.-Belva Chevis; Red Snapper 51lbs. 3oz.-Helen Gains; Spanish-Mackerel 2lbs. 8oz.-Dan Young.

The weighmaster was George Wright. George was pleased by the turn out. There were about 150 registrants for the rodeo.

The only disappointing thing was the weather. It stunk! But even that had a nice outcome as it is reported that the concession stand did a brisk business on sea sickness pills.

Maybe that was why there was so many folks at the scale closing time that had a somewhat green pallor to their skin. I thought maybe they were drinking green beer left over from St. Patrick Day festivities.

Something had effect of a few of the participants as the turtle was told some interesting fish stories. Chappy related that he could not catch any fish because his whole tackle box was full of "bent hooks".

Hank Rankin said that he would have won the rodeo but the only fish he caught he ate. His wife Joan said "no way" if you would have seen how rough the water was out there you would realize that folks did not want anything in their stomachs.

Ames Kergosen and Hank Renkin related as a story to me about their experiences out by Raccoon Island that made me wonder about the type of sea sickness pills they were taking.

You see, they told me with not only a straight face but with great gusto about the six foot long green sea monster they hooked out by the island.

It seems they hooked this fish that they fought for 15 or 20 minutes. It kept trying to go around the boat so they had one man get out of the boat and hold the nose of the boat on the shore.

This kept the monster from tangling in the anchor line. Eventually they saw four feet of its body and tried to net the monster, whereupon it ate the net and swam off.

They were sure it would have won the special fish category in the rodeo.

This is one rodeo that all the fishin' buddies need to put on their must attend list for next year.

By now you must have guessed that the close in fishing is sloow. The water is muddy. Hopefully it will clear up and the fishing will improve real fast like.

This weeks wonderful wise words. I don't have any.

What kind of weird stuff do you think they put in those sea sickness pills, turtle?

Healthwise workshop

The Mississippi State Cooperative Extension Service and the Area Agency on Aging will sponsor a "Healthwise for Life" workshop for Hancock County at 10 a.m. Thursday, May 12 at Main Street Methodist Church multi-purpose building in Bay St. Louis. Pre-registration is required and the first 40 persons registering and participating in the workshop will receive a free copy of the book, Healthwise for Life. Holding copies of the book are Margie Welsh, Family and Consumer Education Health Coordinator, Marilyn Bailey, area health education agent with the Cooperative Extension Service and Prima Plauche, director of the Hancock County Public Library system. ## FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Fire Chief David Garcia
City of Waveland

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following column will be published weekly. Topics will be addressed by various professionals in the community on a rotating basis.

I would like to remind the residents of the community that hurricane season is quickly approaching, and it's not too early to start your preparation. Hurricane season begins June 1 and extends through November 30.

Local emergency responders may not be able to reach you immediately after a disaster, due to the devastation caused from the hurricane, which can hamper emergency response efforts.

Families and individuals who prepare can reduce the fear, anxiety and losses that surround disaster. Preparing does not have to be a "scary experience"; be prepared to evacuate! Gather emergency supplies and know the evacuation routes; talk to your family about hurricanes; plan a place to meet your family in case you are separated from one another in a disaster.

Make plans to protect your property and personal property; take photographs or video tape of your belongings; know how to shut off utilities, (gas, electricity, and water). This is very important. If everyone would plan to prepare their homes for a hurricane by turning off their utilities at the outside valves, and main switches, they could prevent a fire in the home during a hurricane caused by ruptured gas pipes or electrical.

Don't forget you will possibly be cut off from emergency services during the hurricane.

After the hurricane, emergency services may encounter problems caused by the hurricane, and can result in time delay of emergency services arrival.

This is why it is so important for you to prepare before hurricane season strikes or you may fall victim if unprepared.

You need to ask yourself these questions:

1. Do you know what to do if a hurricane watch or warning is issued?

2. Do you know where you and your family would go if told to evacuate?

3. Do you know what to do when a hurricane is approaching...during the eye of the storm...when a hurricane is over?

4. Have you assembled a family disaster supplies kit?

5. Have you stored emergency water supplies?

6. Have you prepared an emergency stockpile, "Short-term and long term food supplies"?

7. Are you prepared to deal with hurricane floods before the flood and after the flood?

If you answered "no" to any of the above questions, stop by the Waveland Fire Department Central Station on Gulfside Drive and see Chief Garcia for copies of the Family Disaster Plan pamphlet. Supply of the pamphlets are limited.

It is not too early to start saving your milk containers and plastic drink bottles in order to store water in; stocking water reserves should be the top priority. Store at least 1 gallon per family member per day, for at least a 3-day supply.

You don't need to go out and buy unfamiliar foods to prepare an emergency food supply. You can use the canned foods, dry mixes and other staples on your cupboard shelves. Canned foods do not require cooking, water or special preparation.

I cannot stress enough that you need to have an emergency plan that reminds you that immediately after a hurricane emergency essential service may be cut off, and local disaster relief and government responders may not be able to reach you right away. So ask yourself-are you ready?

I have developed a form for the people in the Waveland area that needs special assistance in a disaster. People in the Waveland area may call the Waveland Fire Department and

Area Girl Scouts tops in cookie sales

The 1994 Girl Scout cookie sale was concluded in March.

This annual event has become a tradition for Girl Scout troops around the world. It has proved to be an important fund raiser and an excellent vehicle for girls to develop their leadership, marketing and communication skills.

Monies gathered from the sales are used to develop programs and provide wider opportunities for over 10,000 members scattered throughout 15 counties in southern Mississippi.

Leading sellers by troop and service unit were:

Hannah McRaney from Bay/Waveland, troop #293, with 518 boxes. Libby Ferry from Bay/Waveland, troop #404, with 500 boxes. Tricia Burleson from Bay/Waveland, troop #447, with 334 boxes.

Bay Catholic celebrates Field Day

Jesse Battle tries his skills in the obstacle course.

The students of Bay Catholic Elementary held its annual Field Day Friday.

Students competed for first, second and third place ribbons in a large number of events.

The balloon toss appeared to have been one of the high lights of the day.

Teachers were assisted by parent volunteers for the Field Day.

There-off to the races in the sack race as from left, Matthew Adam, Jordan Blaize, Kenneth Crawford, Andy Manieri and Garret Garcia head for the finish line.

SSC Pepsi Students

Pepsi Students of the Month for February at St. Stanislaus High School are, front row from left, freshman Masud Shamsid-Deen, son of Mrs. Halimah Shamsid-Deen of Pass Christian; seventh grader David Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Oliver of Gulfport; and junior Ashley Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cox of Pass Christian; and back row, eighth grader Christian Marrione, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Marrione of Waveland; senior Donald Sherrill, son of Mrs. Barbara Wingfield of Covington, La.; and sophomore Casey Heitzmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heitzmann of Bay St. Louis.

The Student of the Month is sponsored by the Pepsi Cola Company. Students are selected on the basis of performance, effort, people skills and initiative.

Host families are needed

Foreign high school students will be arriving soon into the Bay St. Louis area for academic semester and year homestays, and the sponsoring organization needs a few more local host families.

According to Pacific Intercultural Exchange (P.I.E.) Executive Director, John Doty, the students are all between the ages of 15 and 18 years, are English-speaking, have their own spending money, carry accident and health insurance, and are anxious to share their cultural experiences with their new American families. P.I.E. currently has programs to match almost every family's needs, ranging in length from a semester to a full academic year, where the students attend local high schools.

P.I.E. area representatives match students with host families by finding common interests and lifestyles through an informal in-home meeting. Prospective families are able to review student applications and select the perfect match. As there are no "typical" host families, P.I.E. can fit a student into just about any situation, whether it be a single parent, a childless couple, a retired couple or a large family.

Families who host for P.I.E. are also eligible to claim a $50 per month charitable contribution deduction on their itemized tax returns for each month they host a sponsored student.

For the upcoming programs, P.I.E. has students from Spain, Germany, Poland, Russia, Finland, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Paraguay, Australia, New Zealand, Croatia and many other countries. P.I.E. has also been invited to participate in a special government-funded program to bring scholarship students from the Newly Independent States of the former Soviet Union to the United States. P.I.E. is a non-profit educational organization that has sponsored more than 18,000 students from 23 countries since its founding in 1975. The organization is designated by the United States Information Agency and is listed by the Council on Standards for International Educational Travel (CSIET), certifying that the organization complies with the standards set forth in CSIET's Standards for International Educational Travel Programs.

Bay St. Louis area families interested in learning more about student exchange or arranging for a meeting with a community representative may call P.I.E., toll-free, at 1-800-631-1818. The agency also has travel/study program opportunities available for American high school students as well as possibilities for community volunteers to assist and work with area host families, students and schools.

Students win trip in contest

Each year Coast Electric Power Association sponsors "The Washington Tour" essay contest for juniors throughout the company's service counties. Winners of the contest receive an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. and cash prizes.

This year 19 students in Kay Lovelace's English III classes at Hancock High School entered the contest. The top six entrants of all the contestants then competed in an oral interview for the top three places. The top six essayists were Bradley Perniciaro, Rasa Lemmond, Rebecca Israel, Oreathia Smith, Leanna Williams and Brian Cuevas.

Following the interview, first place went to Oreathia Smith; second, Rasa Lemmond; and third, Bradley Perniciaro. Lemmond and Smith will visit Washington D.C. this summer.

Speak at Ole Miss

Best-selling author John Grisham of Oxford will deliver his commencement address to 1,335 graduates of The University of Mississippi May 14.

The author of "A Time to Kill," "The Firm," "The Pelican Brief" and "The Client," Grisham is an alumnus of the Ole Miss School of Law. His fifth legal thriller - "The Chamber" - is scheduled for publication in May. His works have set records for longevity on national best-seller lists, and "The Firm" and "The Pelican Brief" have both been made into movies.

Grisham and his wife, Renee, have created two programs at Ole Miss to bring more writers to the Oxford campus: the Visiting Writers Series and the Emerging Southern Writers in Residence program. The couple grew up in Southaven, where he also practiced law and represented DeSoto County in the legislature, until he moved to Oxford in 1990 and began devoting himself full time to writing.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) recently held its state competitions in Jackson. Lanny Schwartz, who represented the Hancock County Vocational/Technical Center chapter of VICA, placed third in sheet metal. Lanny, left, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Schwartz of Pearlinton. He is finishing up his second year in Metal Trades with Reggie Ladner, right, as instructor.

SJA and OLA alumnae weekend is May 28-29

St. Joseph Academy graduates, Our Lady Academy graduates and families are invited to an alumnae weekend May 28-29 on the campus at 222 South Beach Boulevard, Bay St. Louis.

The SJA classes of '24, '34, '44, '54 and '64 and the OLA class of '84 will be honored. The activities begin Saturday with graduation ceremonies for the 1994 class in Our Lady of the Gulf Church at 3 p.m. Following the ceremonies, all are invited to a reception in the Bay Catholic Elementary School cafeteria.

That evening, alumnae can come together for a class reunion or enjoy the local area on their own.

Sunday Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. in Our Lady of the Gulf Church. Brunch in the Bay Catholic cafeteria will be available after Mass for $5 per person.

Persons interested in helping or working on a class reunion, contact Eileen Chapoton at Our Lady Academy, 467-1666 or 467-7048.

Scouts exercise skills at camporee

In brilliant sunshine, 348 Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and their leaders from Hancock County and St. Tammany Parish put their skills to the test at a recent Spring Camporee at Bully Zengarling's Circle—Z Ranch near Bay St. Louis.

After proving their courage by walking the swaying foot-ropes of the monkey bridge, the Scouts formed up by patrols to test their skills by tying a clove hitch by remote control, shoot their best on the BB target range, built a fire with flint and steel, tie eight knots in less than 60 seconds and lash a tripod that could support a Scout.

Just for fun, Scouts and Cubs hunkered down for a tug of war; figured out how to move an "atomic snowball" without touching it; and climbed, crawled and ran through an obstacle course.

In all, 124 Boy Scouts, 87 Cub Scouts, 11 Explorers and 126 adult leaders attended the three-day, two-night event.

When the evening star jeweled the fading sky, Cubs, Scouts and parents came from their camps and gathered by a council fire. Together, they laughed at skits, sang songs, heard ghostly stories, and watched sparks fly upward in the starry night.

In awards based on competition, Cub Scout Pack 208, sponsored by American Legion Post 139, Bay St. Louis, was named Best Overall Pack.

In the Boy Scout division, two Hawk Patrols took top honors in the patrol competition. The one from Troop 346, sponsored by First Presbyterian Church, Slidell, placed first, while the one from Troop 327, sponsored by the Slidell Lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks took second place.

In overall Troop competition, Troop 346 took top honors.

The members of the camporee committee chaired by Charles Dischinger where volunteers Billy Adams, Peggy Carter, Eddie Fayard, Sherry Fisher, Liz Hilby, Terry Ramsey and District Executive Frank Hingle.

Cypress District of the New Orleans Area Council of the Boy Scout of America brings Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Exploring to eastern St. Tammany Parish and all of Hancock County.

Stanislaus announces STAR Student and STAR Teacher

Dr. Michael Ryan, principal of St. Stanislaus High School, announced that senior Drew Scafide has been selected as a Mississippi STAR Student for the 1993-94 school year.

Announcement of the selection of the STAR Student was made by the Mississippi Economic Council, sponsor of the STAR Student-Teacher awards program and also sponsor of the Education Celebration.

STAR Students are selected from accredited high schools on the basis of academic excellence. Selections are based on American College Test scores and scholastic averages.

Scafide selected Mr. William Jennings as the STAR Teacher because in his opinion Mr. Jennings "has always been there for me, as a teacher and a friend, during all my years here at Stanislaus." Mr. Jennings has taught on the Mississippi Gulf Coast for 25 years, 16 of those years at St. Stanislaus where he currently serves as the chairman of the computer science department. This summer Jennings is one of fifty teachers in the United States selected for the Teachers' Supercomputing Workshop to be held at the National Energy Research Supercomputer Center in California which is part of the National Science Foundation Summer Program at the University of California at Berkeley. He has also been selected this summer to represent the Southeastern United States for the Department of Energy.

Scafide is presently in his sixth year at St. Stanislaus. For three years he has been a member of the National Honor Society and currently serves as president. He has been a member of Mu Alpha Theta for four years and has also run cross-country and track. He was voted "Mr. Rock-A-Chaw" and won the Coach's Award for cross country. In track, he achieved the Distance Award and lettered three years in soccer, four years in track, and four years in cross-country. Also, this year Drew was chosen as Senior of the Month and Exchange Student of the Month. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Scafide, Jr. of Bay St. Louis.

In April, Scafide and Jennings were honored during the Education Celebration of the MEC's Annual Membership Meeting in Jackson where the Mississippi STAR Student and STAR Teacher for the 1993-94 school year were announced. Also the scholarship awards funded by the Phil Hardin Foundation of Meridian and Sanderson Farms, Inc. of Laurel were presented to the state's ALL-STARs, the top 20 STAR Students and Teachers.

Summer school

Members of the River Navigators are putting the final touches on bulletin boards for summer school orientation and registration at Pearl River Community College. The River Navigators are PRCC's student host and hostess team. Navigators include, seated from left, Rhonda Creel, Columbia, graduate of East Marion; Julie Lagasse, Bay St. Louis, graduate of Bay High; and Premilla Mankodi, Carriere, Pearl River Central graduate; standing from left, Alison Broome, Sumrall, Sumrall High graduate; and Vonetta Jordan, Poplarville, Poplarville High School graduate.

PRCC summer school begins June 6

Pearl River Community College will hold orientation for new students enrolling in day summer school at 8:30 a.m. Monday, June 6 in Moody Hall Auditorium on campus.

"All students enrolling at PRCC for the first time must be present to receive instructions for advisement and registration," said Dr. Becky Askew, director of guidance, recruitment and orientation.

Administrators and counselors will answer questions about admissions during orientation. Students will meet with advisors following the session.

First term summer classes begin June 7. Registration for the second term will be July 1, second term classes July 5.

Students should have their transcripts on file in the PRCC Admissions Office or bring them to orientation. Academic and technical students must take the ACT. Vocational students must take the Test for Adult Basic Education (TABE).

Individuals planning to enroll in summer classes, who have not taken these tests, should call the Office of Guidance, Recruitment and Orientation at 795-1317.

Russians seek U.S. pen pals

The organization "SAPE" (formerly "The Soviet-American Penfriend Exchange" in New York) is looking for 100,000 Americans between the ages of 10 and 40 who would like to strike up a penpal friendship with someone in the former Soviet Union. Since its inception in 1989, SAPE has linked up more than 20,000 pairs of penpals. News of that success has spread via word-of-mouth all across the former Soviet republics. This has resulted in an avalanche of mail - more than 100,000 letters - which has completely overwhelmed the small group of volunteers who operate SAPE.

Penpals are matched up on the basis of age, gender, choice of male or female penpal and, in the case of the small percentage who do not know English, common language. Because of the wide variety of mail, SAPE is usually able to fulfill requests for penpals from a specific geographic area. Letters have arrived from every major city in the former USSR, as well as from remote Siberian villages.

Despite the recent backlash against western-style reforms in Russian, the majority of young people remain avid fans of American culture, especially American music, films and TV shows. In the Baltic nations, residents are often able to pick up TV broadcasts from Scandinavia of such shows as Beverly Hills, 90210 and Saved By The Bell. In addition, The MTV Top 20 Countdown is broadcast weekly by one of Russia's national TV stations.

Individuals, classes, scout troops or religious youth groups who would like to participate in this program should send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to:

SAPE-Dept. N
1400 Midvale Ave., #408
Los Angeles, CA 90024-5498

Over the past five years, the following organizations have referred persons in search of a penpal to SAPE: The United States Information Agency, The Embassy of Russia, ISAR (Institute for Soviet-American Relations), Voice of America and The Peace Corps. Since 1989, more than 300 U.S. schools have participated in this program. SAPE is not a branch of any other organization and has no political or religious affiliation.

Williams Senior of the Month

Bobby Williams has been named "Senior of the Month" for February at St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. This special award, voted on by the faculty members at St. Stanislaus, recognizes seniors who display in a unique manner the character traits of sincerity, enthusiasm, family spirit, involvement, observance and responsibility.

In addition to being Senior of the Month, Williams has been honored as a semifinalist in the National Hispanic Scholar Recognition Program and is the recipient of a three year Type II Air Force ROTC college scholarship. While attending St. Stanislaus, Williams has been active in National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society, Key Club, SADD, and Mu Alpha Theta where he currently serves as secretary. Williams lettered in both soccer and football, playing left fullback on the soccer team and tight-end on the football team.

Speech winner

Kyla Gutierrez, a 7th grade student at Hancock Junior High, won first place in the Speech Contest held during the 1994 Mississippi Association of Student Councils Annual Convention held at Hancock High School. She is the daughter of Larry and Vicky Gutierrez of Diamondhead.

Williams has achieved President Honor Roll three times, Alpha Honor Roll seven times, and Beta Honor Roll three times. In addition to his academic achievements, Williams has been a school tutor and is owner and president of a three man lawn care business.

Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Williams of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi.

Something New.
1 (601) 352-9993

There's something new to remember. From now on, when you make long distance calls to telephone numbers within Mississippi's 601 area code, dial 0 or 1 + 601 and then the number you're calling.

The nation's continued telecommunications growth has created a shortage of telephone numbers. By dialing the appropriate area code on all long distance calls, numbers are freed up for new business and residential customers.

If you have long distance numbers within the 601 area code on any programmed services or equipment like Speed Calling, Call Forwarding, modems, or even a FAX machine, now's the time to reprogram them. Effective May 1, 1994, dialing the area code will be necessary to complete long distance calls to telephone numbers within the 601 area.

Heughan named Collegiate All-American

The United States Achievement Academy announced Jennifer Heughan has been named a Collegiate Scholastic All-American.

The USAA has established the Scholastic All-American Collegiate Award Program in order to offer deserving recognition to superior students who excel in the academic disciplines.

Heughan, who attends William Carey College on the Coast, was nominated for this national award by Mr. Larry Braidfoot.

She has maintained a 4.0 grade point average in her freshman and sophomore years and has been a national award winner of Scholastic All-American Collegiate in her freshman and sophomore years at William Carey on the Coast.

Heughan is an English major and plans to teach English on college level. She will do her graduate work at William Carey College.

She is a graduate of Our Lady Academy in Bay St. Louis and the daughter of Mr. Alan B. Heughan and Ms. Susan S. Bulger.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Savarese of Bay St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Heughan of Metairie, La.
